Carbonara orzo risotto

Consejo del chef

Garnish with more grated cheese, the rest of the guanciale, and some basil leaves

Raciones para 4

200 gr Guanciale, pancetta or bacon

1,5 Cups Orzo

Salt

Pepper

- 3 Cups Chicken stock
- 1 Egg
- 2 Yolks
- 1 Cup Pecorino cheese

Basil

- Dice guanciale, pancetta, or bacon finely and cook over medium heat in a large frying pan until crunchy, cooking it with its fat. Remove from the pan, keep the fat, and set aside for later.
- Use the same frying pan to stir-fry the orzo. Pour the chicken stock, add salt and pepper, and stir. Rise the heat to bring the stock to a boil and lower it, then cook slowly for twice the recommended time indicated on the package. Stir to prevent it from sticking.
- When the orzo is cooked, choose "keep warm on the hob and prepare the carbonara sauce.
- Beat the egg with the yolks and pecorino cheese in a bowl. Add two tablespoons of orzo to bring the eggs to the same temperature, and add the guanciale, saving some for garnish later.
- Mix until all the ingredients are well combined. Place the mix in a pan and stir until creamy.
- Let it rest for five minutes, stir again, and plate.
